

TARGET AUDIENCE

Any one who is interested and enjoys the True Crime Genre. Gavin research is highly focused on history that occurred in his home state of Wisconsin, making him one of the best and only resources that specifically focuses on Wisconsin True Crime and History

ABOUT GAVIN

Gavin Schmitt co-hosts the Milwaukee Mafia Podcast with lifelong friend, Eric Wulterkens. The podcast is often tied to his book, The Milwaukee Mafia: Mobsters in the Heartland, and is presented in an educational as well as conversational format.

A lifelong resident of the Fox Cities, Gavin has also written on historical topics involving Kaukauna, Neenah, the Menominee tribe, and beyond.

Gavin loves researching and discussing true crime, and has been called the go-to expert on organized crime in Wisconsin. If you want the facts, Gavin has them.

When not digging through dusty archives and FBI files, Gavin spends his days drinking too much coffee, watching truly awful films, and being a local historian.

Interested in having Gavin come speak? He'd love to! He's presented on topics such as the Milwaukee Mafia, organized crime, Wisconsin history, requesting records, genealogy, and his journey to becoming a published author. Send him an email or message him on Facebook.