

About the Podcast

The inspiration for the Milwaukee Mafia podcast comes from Gavin Schmitt's book of the same name. Eric knew he had to get Gavin in front of a microphone to share stories he's researched related to the Milwaukee Mafia and organized crime.

Hear tales of true crime and history from Milwaukee and beyond. As Gavin likes to say, "The crime is the desert used to hide the history "vegetables". The history is interesting, but the element of crime is what leads people to learn the history."
